

Oh Deer! Environmental Forum Worksheets
#1-3. Welcome & Introduction

1. What is a stakeholder? Circle the correct answer:
 - a. A technical term scientists use to describe a container that hold chemical samples.
 - b. A place maker scientist use to geographically identify a point of pollution for follow up study.
 - c. A person or group with a legitimate interest in an issue.
 - d. A survey point marking a legal boundary.

2. Which of the following groups are stakeholders in the deer population management issue?
Circle the correct answer
 - a. Hunters
 - b. Farmers
 - c. Deer
 - d. Businesses
 - e. Homeowners
 - f. Forest Ecosystem
 - g. Elected Officials
 - h. All of the above
 - i. None of the above

3. Point of View Papers are written by... (Circle the correct answer)
 - a. Individual students
 - b. Groups of students role-playing as Stakeholders
 - c. The teacher
 - d. Are contained in the background reading

4. Thoughtful Questions are... (Circle the correct answer)
 - a. Written before the Point Of View papers
 - b. Are answered by the Native Guides
 - c. A way for Stakeholder Groups to discuss Point Of View papers
 - d. Answered by the teacher

5. In regards to solving problems, what does consensus mean? Circle the correct answer
 - a. The key point of difference between diverse group's positions
 - b. A list of grievances
 - c. General agreement among members of a group
 - d. Absolute agreement among members of a group

6. There is a good chance that the problem of deer overpopulation will solve itself.
Circle the correct answer: True False